

Benjamin Webb

897 S Morton St, Bloomington, IN 47403
webbbsen@iu.edu | (812) 340-3314

EDUCATION

Indiana University, Bloomington, IN
Bachelor of Science in Computer Science
Specialization: Intelligent Systems
Bachelor of Arts in East Asian Language and Culture
Specialization: Japanese

Expected May 2020

Nanzan University, Nagoya, Japan

September 2018 - May 2019

WORK EXPERIENCE

COOK Inc, Bloomington, IN Production Assistant

Summer 2017

- Operated various package sealing machines and equipment.
- Created medical dilator devices using a series of processes and machinery.
- Assembled medical device products to be packaged and inspected by the quality control department.

Target, Bloomington, IN Cashier

November 2014 – January 2015

- Operated a cash register and handled hundreds of monetary transactions a day.
- Prepared pizzas and other food items at the in-store Pizza Hut, including cooking, cleaning, and cataloging sales.
- Assisted customers on the sales floor and took inventory on products throughout various departments.

Indiana University, Bloomington, IN
Study-abroad Peer Counselor

August 2019 – Present

- Assist prospective students in their application process and requirements for going abroad.
- Provide counsel and information to help guide interested students toward a good study-abroad program for them.
- Participate in special events and give presentations based on my experience studying in a foreign country.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Languages: Java, Python, SQL, PHP, R, MATLAB

Platforms: Microsoft Windows, Mac-OS

Miscellaneous: Microsoft Office, LaTeX, Adobe development tools, Machine Learning, Data Mining

LANGUAGE

Japanese: 4 years of college courses, 1 year of study-abroad in Nagoya, Japan.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Cyber Security Club, Indiana University

2016-2017

- Learned about the current state of internet security in technology today, and discussed real world applications.
- Explored different commonly-used methods of exploiting website security, and how to set up preventative measures.

ReStore - Habitat for Humanity, Bloomington, IN Spring 2018

- Served a volunteer role by organizing inventory at the shop site and moving furniture to be loaded into vehicles.
- Assisted guests in the shop with handling and purchasing items.
- Prepared donated materials to be recycled and processed in the back of the facility.

ACADEMIC PROJECTS

Social Network Website

Fall 2016

- Collaborated with a group to develop a website that integrates with a database, and can store new users and their profiles

Chess AI

Fall 2017

- Created a chess program with artificial intelligence capable of making beneficial moves based on a given board.

Sudoku Solver

Fall 2017

- Utilized constraint propagation techniques to create an AI that can solve any possible Sudoku puzzle.